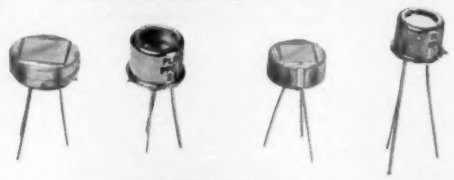
INFRA RED

DETECTION IS OUR BUSINESS

The development and production of all types of infra-red detector is very much a Plessey speciality. A family of fully-proven devices is now available, many ex-stock, covering a very wide range of industrial and scientific applications. For example . . .



Intruder alarms:
PPC522C is a ceramic pyroelectric element equipped with JFET preamplifier and a filter window — all on a T05 header.
PPC1821C provides a smaller element on a T018 header.

Fire detection:
PLT522 is a lithium tantalate device, a matching JFET amplifier and a filter window to customer requirements — packed into a T05 can.

Gas analysis:
catered for by a number of variants in the 522 and 222 series giving a choice of detector elements and narrow-band filter windows.

Detector arrays:
pyroelectric detectors are available in monolithic arrays of up to 100 elements. Matching preamplifier arrays are also available.
